TAYLOR SULLIVAN AND KAITLIN CHOUINARD

Congratulations class of 2013! We did it! Our class will leave a lasting impression on this school as the first class to graduate from a new building!

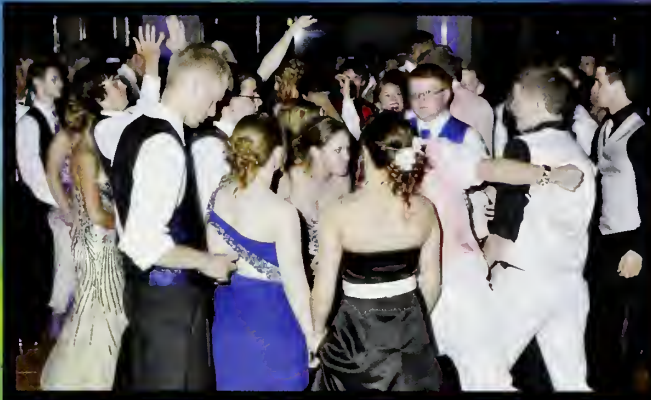

The theme of this year's yearbook is Pads since we all depended on them so much this year!

Thanks to all of you who stuck by me for all these years. I know, it's been crazy. Moving giant sets as tiny little freshmen, playing Marco Polo as sophomores, hanging out with Leroy after school as juniors, and spending ridiculous amounts of time in my second home (the band room) as seniors. Shoutout to Mr. Trombley for dealing with my "musician freakout" moments. There are so many memories I'll never lose. Thanks for four great years.

If you were to ask me where I'd be in my senior year of high school, I would never have imagined myself to be where I am today. So much has changed- including myself, my friends, and my life, but it feels like just yesterday I was sitting in freshmen advisory looking up at the seniors. All four years hold memories I will never forget and I want to thank my family and friends for everything that I will someday look back upon and remember about high school. The best of luck to all of my classmates of the class of 2013!

soon, and good luck to

"While not every choice may have been perfect, we have come a long way since the days of elementary school playgrounds and milk flavor decisions."

Yimin Zhang

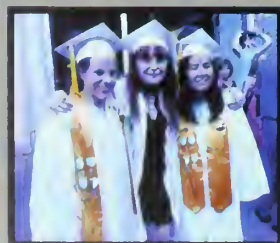

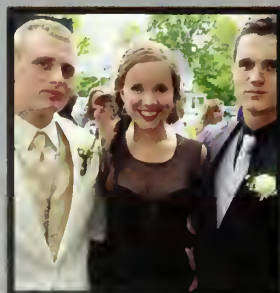

"People always say that the best things in life come in threes. For high school, I believe that those three are friends, dreams, and memories. We all have experienced these three which made up our time at Grafton High School."

Kaitlin Chouinard

"The future is ours to create. Whether you are planning to enter the work force, the military, a trade, or to pursue higher education- chose your dream. Chase it with determination, and live your life with passion, because although this may be the end of our journey at Grafton High School, it is just the beginning for so much more."

Lauren Riggieri

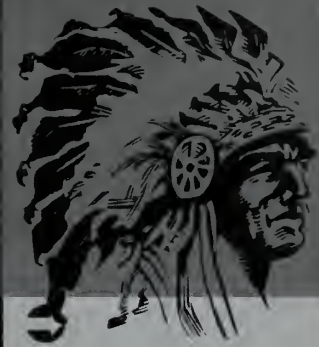

Class of 2013, believe that if you make courageous choices bet on yourself and put yourself out there, that you will have an impact as a result of what you do. Arriving to the next chapter of your lives, don't just be yourself. Be all of yourself.

- Sarah Ouellette; Senior Editor

VICI. 2013.

"Whenever you leave the house make sure this world can see you shine. All I ask is that you never be afraid of all the amazing things that live inside of you. Never forget that you have your own story to tell. While you're writing it, don't miss out on the little things while waiting for the big moments. Your life doesn't always have to look good on a resume. You don't have to assess your life in terms of how it will look at your high school reunion. Life doesn't have to be impressive. But it should always be interesting."

Mary Stygles

"We only have one more day, and after tomorrow when we walk off the stage at the Hanover Theatre, we will be moving on into the world. Ready or not, here we come!"

As you finish this life chapter, we wish you love, happiness & continued success. Some inspirations:

- Take care of everyone smaller than you.
- Dreaming does matter. It allows you to become that which you aspire to be.
- Don't measure yourself by what you've accomplished, but by what you should have accomplished with your ability.
- Life is not a race but indeed a journey.
- And if you've come this far, maybe you're willing to come a little further
- PPW
